College and Research Libraries is the official organ of the Association of College and Reference Libraries, a division of the American Library Association. It includes general articles, official reports, addresses of conferences speakers, reviews of selected books, and news from the field of wide professional interest.

Manuscripts of articles and addresses should be addressed to the Office of the Editor, Columbia University Library, New York City 27. Requests for reprints should be addressed to Editor, A.L.A. Bulletin, American Library Association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago 11, at the time the notification is received of the issue in which the article is scheduled to appear. The scope of the journal does not permit inclusion of personal communications or exhaustive coverage by reviews of the literature of librarianship.

To editors: Material in College and Research Libraries is not copyrighted. No comment or pronouncement can be cited as official endorsement of the Association of College and Reference Libraries or of the American Library Association. Such action can only be taken through a formal vote of the associations. The assumption of editorial responsibility is not to be construed necessarily as endorsement of opinions expressed by writers.

Subscription price: to members of the Association of College and Reference Libraries, $3 per year; to others, $4 in the U.S., Canada, and Latin America; in other countries, $4.25; single copy, $1.25.

Payment for subscriptions should be made to the American Library Association, 50 E. Huron St., Chicago 11.

Members of the American Library Association may become members of the Association of College and Reference Libraries by indicating this as the division of their choice when paying A.L.A. dues, without the payment of additional dues. A.L.A. members wishing to belong to more than one division must pay to the A.L.A. an additional 20 per cent of their A.L.A. dues for each additional division.

College and Research Libraries is published quarterly, January, April, July, and October at 50 E. Huron St., Chicago 11, Ill., by the American Library Association, and printed at 450 Ahnaip St., Menasha, Wis. Entered as second-class matter May 3, 1940, at the post office at Chicago, Ill., under the Act of March 3, 1879, with an additional entry at Menasha, Wis.

For WOOD and METAL
LIBRARY EQUIPMENT

Please remember

There is ONLY ONE
SNEAD & COMPANY

Recently, there have been deliberate attempts to confuse librarians and architects regarding the identity of the company that is now carrying on the library business of the Snead family.

The Snead library business is now, as it has been continuously for the past 70 years, under the personal management of the Snead family. We are Snead & Company in name, tradition, and experienced personnel. No one else is authorized to trade on our good name in the library field.

Modern Plant

Plant facilities, comprising 29 acres of floor space and equipped with modern, specialized machinery, are now engaged in the rapid and economical production of wood and metal Snead library equipment to meet practically every requirement.

Engineering Service

Snead engineers work with architects, librarians, and builders in developing plans, and in the erection and equipping of modern, efficient libraries. Close personal contact is maintained from start to finish.

The organization that pioneered many of the major improvements in modern library construction is ready to place its extensive engineering facilities at your disposal without obligation.

SNEAD WOOD FURNITURE and EQUIPMENT

Besides the metal equipment listed below, Snead & Company offers a complete line of wood furniture and equipment, such as Charging Desks, Catalog Cases, Tables, Shelving, Chairs, and technical equipment of standard or special design.
